

HaChaim SheAchare

A photo exhibition about the International and the Jewish Children's Centers at Kloster Indersdorf, documenting two different historical humanitarian efforts to help the youngest Nazi victims in postwar Germany by creating a therapeutic environment which enabled them to forge a new future, despite their traumatic past.

20.1-28.2/2019

Several survivors of the Shoah who were cared for in Kloster Indersdorf (1945 - 48) by a UN team or by the Zionist socialist movement Dror will be present.

Opening and reception:

Sunday, January 20th, 2019, 6 pm
Tel Aviv University, Sourasky Central Library

Sponsored by

Anna Andlauer
Curator, Heimatverein Indersdorf

Stefan Löwl
Dachau County Commissioner

Dr. Miri Nehari
HaBricha Legacy Association